Click Coffee Break

3 words to describe July so far...

Minnesota lake life. Sorry (not really sorry) that we can't stop posting pictures from the lake to Instagram. We promise: we really are working. Whenever we have clients out to our office, they never fail to ask, "How do you guys get anything done?!" Here are our top tips for being productive when outside looks like heaven on earth:

1. Stretch.
2. Schedule face to face meetings to break up long hours in front of a computer.
3. Plan ahead for a midday walk outside.
4. Get in the zone with a lyricless playlist.
- 5.
6. ...sorry, a HUGE boat just passed by...
7. Caffeinate.

Couldn't attend our Summer Games on the Lake? Here's a recap of what you missed.

Our summer networking event was a blast! As a digital agency, much of our communication takes place online, so a few hours of face-time with our clients, coworkers, and industry friends was a treat. No shop talk. Just bags, beers, Chipotle, and the occasional selfie stick. We'd chalk the Summer Games on the Lake up to a success. Thanks to all who joined us!
